(b) The department of state revenue and the department of local government finance shall adjust calculations and procedures under IC 6-1.1-21 for property taxes first due and payable in 2007 to apply additional property tax replacement credits to tax statements based on the deficiency appropriation under this act to the property tax replacement fund board for the state fiscal year beginning July 1, 2006, and ending July 30, 2007. A county auditor shall comply with the procedures prescribed under this subsection.

(c) A county auditor:

2.8

- (1) may apply the entire amount of the additional property tax replacement credit equally to all installments of property taxes first due and payable in 2007; or
- (2) if application of the credit to the first installment would delay the delivery of tax statements more than thirty (30) days after the date that the tax statements would otherwise be mailed or transmitted, may issue revised tax statements and apply the entire credit to the property tax due in a later installment.
- IC 6-1.1-22.5-6 does not apply if the county auditor elects to proceed under subdivision (2). The department of local government finance may prescribe procedures to apply the additional 2007 property tax replacement credit to tax statements.
- (d) If a county implements this SECTION by mailing or transmitting a revised tax statement under subsection (c)(2), the county:
 - (1) shall prominently include an instruction in the tax statement or on a separate insert included with the tax statement that assists the recipient of the statement in discovering that the amount payable in the second installment is less than the amount specified in the previous tax statement sent to the recipient and alerts the recipient not to make a payment that exceeds the amount due; and
 - (2) is entitled to an additional distribution equal to one dollar ($1) for each revised tax statement containing the statement described in subdivision (1) that is mailed or transmitted to a taxpayer or a mortgagee holding an escrow account for the taxpayer.
- (e) The property tax replacement fund board shall provide for an additional distribution to taxing units from the property tax replacement fund to replace revenue lost to a county as the result of the granting of additional 2007 property tax replacement credits and to reimburse counties for mailing or transmitting revised tax statements. The distribution shall be made before November 30, 2007, on the schedule determined by the property tax replacement fund board. A distribution described in this subsection is not subject to any law limiting the maximum amount that may be distributed under IC 6-1.1-21. The amount distributed under this
